FOREWORD

DELVING into musty temples, incense burning, oblique-eyed figures slip noiselessly past, a soft metallic gong echoes—China speaks!

Guided by the ancient wisdom of the Chinese masters, the 1935 VALENIAN wishes to portray a comparison in the learning of China's sages to that of our modern education. These aged adages adapt themselves strikingly to our present school life. From queer, sing-song phrases come words of intelligence, humor, and character insight.

China speaks again through the leaves of this book both in words and pictures to you.

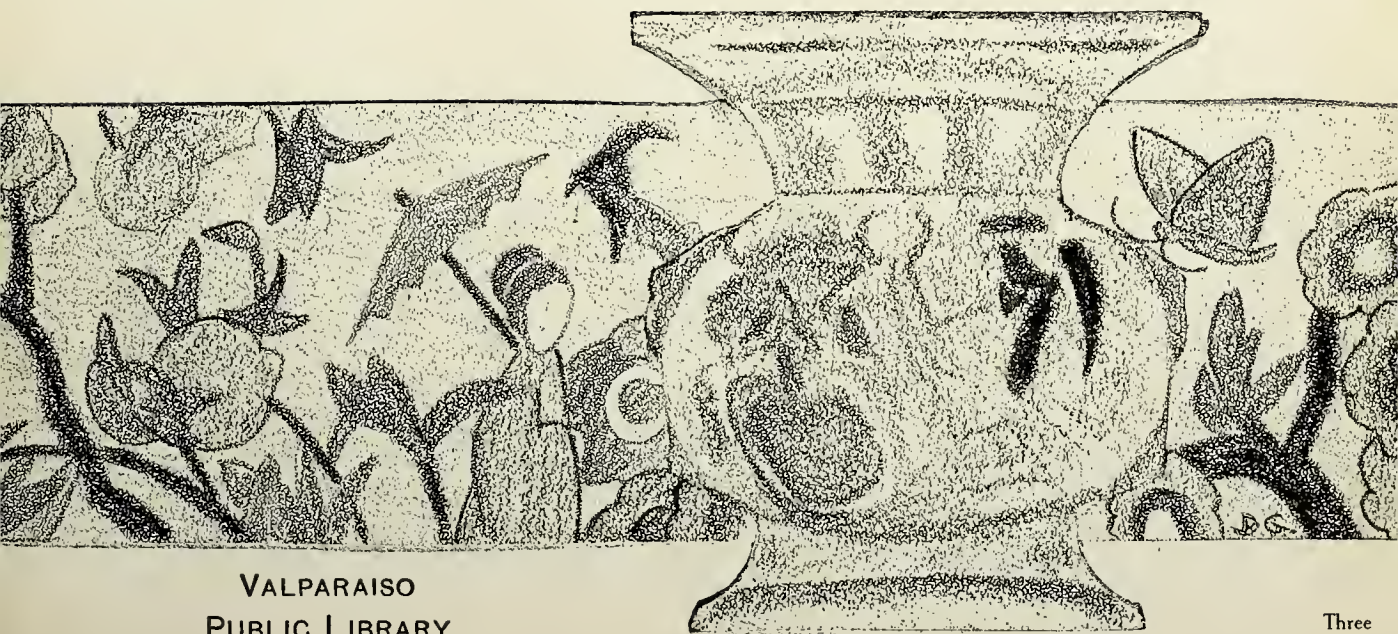

DEDICATION

“T has never withheld instruction from any, even from those who come for it with the smallest offering.”

Education — Our School! — stands supreme and second to none giving knowledge to “those who come for it with the smallest offering.”

The Senior class of 1935 is proud to dedicate this VALENIAN to Education and Our School. May we who have benefited by the advantages continue to advance in knowledge and the high standards set forth.

VALPARAISO HIGH SCHOOL

The Valparaiso High School was erected in 1927 and is one of the finest buildings in the state. Its equipment and laboratories are modern in every respect. This institution is maintained in a most excellent way, and its beauty has been enhanced by extensive landscaping of the grounds. To the rear of the school building is the Boucher gymnasium, large and well built, which also serves as an auditorium for the high school.

SCHOOL BOARD

The three men pictured here are members of the Valparaiso Board of Education. Mr. C. W. Wharton, president, has for twelve years been pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. I. C. Tilton, treasurer, is a prominent lawyer in the community. Mr. J. J. McKay is connected with the J. A. Hertel Publishing Company of Chicago. These men do all within their power to serve the community and give every possible opportunity to the pupils.

MR. J. J. MCKAY
Secretary

Let a ruler base his government upon virtuous principles, and he will be like a polar star, which remains steadfast in its place, while all the hosts of stars turn toward it.

SUPERINTENDENT ROY B. JULIAN
—State Teachers' College, Butler College, A. B.; Indiana University, A. M.; Graduate work, Chicago University. Great golfer, non-chalant air, friend of everyone.

MR. ROY B. JULIAN, Superintendent

Through the guidance of a wise board and two outstanding men as leaders, supported by an earnest faculty, we are privileged to enjoy four years of learning.

COURT BETWEEN MAIN BUILDING AND GYMNASIUM

The master is a man of pleasant manners and probity, courteous, modest, and unassuming; it is by his being such, that he arrives at the fact.

PRINCIPAL H. M. JESSEE—Mathematics, Valparaiso University, B. S.; Indiana State Teachers' College, A. B.; Chicago University. Mr. Julian's rival golf opponent, doesn't mix business and pleasure, basketball fan.

MR. HOMER M. JESSEE, Principal

GYMNASIUM, STUDY HALL, ENTRANCE

Our buildings are modern, well equipped, beautiful, and well cared for. It has been made possible for us to receive our instruction in the most pleasant surroundings.

*The service of the
and the spiritual becomes apparent.*

MRS. ONITA THOMAS
DIED DECEMBER 9

The death of Mrs. Onita Woody Thomas on December 9, 1934 saddened the entire school. Her pleasing personality and charm endeared her to the faculty and the entire student body with whom she came in contact.

Mrs. Thomas had been connected with Valparaiso High School as an instructor of Latin and German for the last thirteen years.

The German Club, which she sponsored, held memorial services in her memory on Monday, December 10.

LIBRARY OF V. H. S.

The library of Valparaiso High School has a collection of 3,600 volumes. These represent books of all kinds, both fiction and non-fiction. In addition, the school gives the students the opportunity of reading many of the best magazines. This room is one of the principal study halls.

The room below is typical of Valparaiso High School laboratories—well equipped with whatever is needed for that course.

FRESHMEN

The newest addition to the high school group is the 1935 freshmen. At the beginning of the new semester, forty-seven boys and girls came into Valparaiso High School bringing the total enrollment up to 591. Since there is no mid-year commencement, this group will, during the four years, be absorbed by the 1934 class and the fall class of 1935. This group like all other underclassmen is unorganized.

VALENIAN STAFF

The Valenian staff sleuths around in true Chinese style capturing by numerous pictures the life of our school. Then the activity sets in, mystery, identifying pictures, deciding theme and covers, signing contracts, constructing dummies, pasting, balancing budgets, crying for typewriters, mounting pictures, drawing pictures, all present their worries in the busy workroom during the eighth period.

The money to finance this project is obtained from the senior candy store, senior play, subscriptions for Valenian, and class dues.

Gradually the creases disappear from foreheads, smiles break forth. The object of so much activity takes form. The Valenian at last is completed.

VALPOST STAFF

The spring and fall Valpost staffs are composed of members chosen from the best material in the journalism I classes. No more than twelve members are on any staff. Each position on the staff is given by appointment and according to the individual's aptitude.

During the year, each class puts out eight of the sixteen issues. The fall staff must sell advertising, subscriptions, and do all the necessary work for the organization of the paper. The spring class takes up the work of the fall staff, sells additional advertising, and completes the collections for subscriptions and advertising.

The Valpost has a circulation of 384 subscriptions within the school. Twenty copies are exchanged with schools over the state.

Our school paper is entered in the state and national contests, always ranking high in both.

The paper is not a money making proposition. The 1933-34 staff closed the year with $4.50 surplus. The subscription price is fifty cents a year. Mrs. E. R. Foor is the sponsor of the Valpost.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Bartholomew and Miss Weems, is a member of national and state societies. Its present enrollment is sixty.

Among its social activities are the Mothers' Day Teas, Alumni Lunches, a Christmas party and a party in conjunction with the Tumbling Club.

The officers are president, Mae Steinway; vice-president, Alice Bond; secretary, Leona Brownbridge; treasurer, Charlotte Corsbie.

GERMAN CLUB

In its fourth year, the German Club has thirty-four members. Its bi-weekly meetings are conducted in German by the president, Norma Gentz. The programs consist of German plays, stories, and songs. Other officers are George Butterfield, vice-president; Jacqueline Sievers, secretary; Janet Stoner, song leader. Mrs. Frieda Schenck is the club's new sponsor.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

This is a club of students of the commercial department. In addition to their regular meetings, they have two major social activities, a Christmas party and a spring banquet. Town's people are invited to contribute to the regular programs of this club. The officers are: Thelma Sherrick, president; Walter Rayder, vice-president; Ruth Lindner, recording secretary; Cora Bastel, corresponding secretary; James Evans, treasurer; Gilbert Butler, scrap-book manager.

TUMBLING CLUB

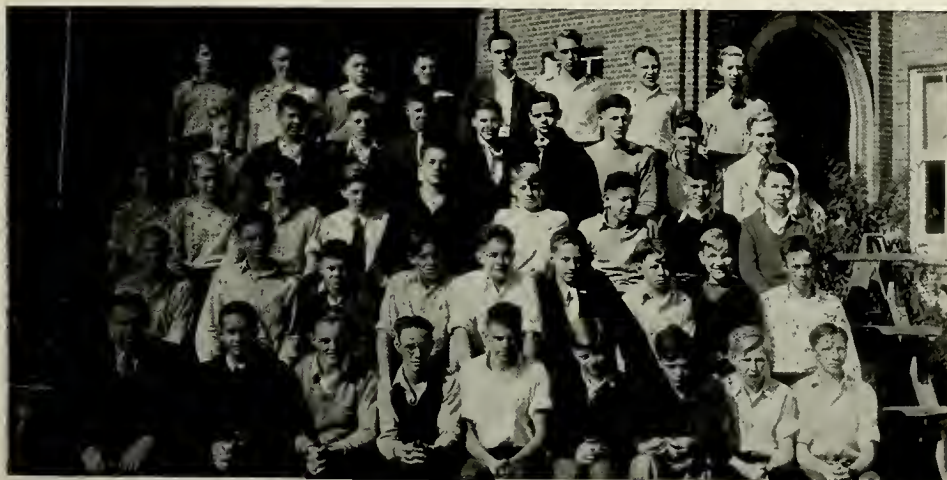

The Tumbling Club provides physically beneficial recreation for boys not participating in major athletics.

Members attend bi-weekly meetings and an annual spring picnic. A team of twelve members coached by Mr. Brown, the sponsor, gives exhibition performances and competitive meets.

Officers are president, Charles Beach; vice-president, Myron Basinger; secretary-treasurer, Lloyd Dunn; business manager, Theodore Makovsky.

HI-Y

The Valparaíso Hi-Y club under the direction of Mr. Ralph Schenck is one of the best known clubs in the school. It is a service body and is affiliated with the state organization. The local group is identified in the community because of its contributions to the needy. In the school its efforts are greatly appreciated.

The Hi-Y is composed of thirty-seven members. The officers for this year are Ralph Keehn, president; Robert James, vice-president; Gilbert Johnson, secretary; Joseph Sheeks, treasurer; Charles Beach, reporter; Arleigh Johnsen, sergeant-at-arms.

Among many of the activities that are carried on are the contributing of baskets to the unfortunate at Christmas and Thanksgiving, the sponsoring of a Courtesy Week in the high school, an annual Father and Son's banquet, a play presented before the student body, acting as ushers at the many functions in the gymnasium, and each semester the opening of a book store for the sale of second hand books.

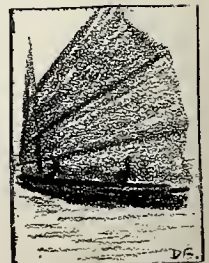

Regular activities are carried on through bi-weekly meetings and board meetings. Members of this club are proud to display and wear the pins and sweaters representative of this organization.

To become a Hi-Y member it is necessary to be selected by the board and approved by the club. This year twelve new pledges were added. They are as follows: Robert Beach, Charles Doud, Wallace Wilson, Bernard Cinkoske, Verner Raelson, Robert Ulsh, Carroll Miles, John Ruge, Myron Moser, Ludwig Kueck, Carl Wood, Allen Cotterman.

These boys were pledged and later formally made members at an induction ceremony held in the school library on January 21. The number of pledges taken in each year depends upon the number of members graduating.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

The Senior Girl Reserves, the “big sisters” of our high school, have as their slogan, “Service to Others”.

The freshmen reception at the beginning of the year is one of the main social events sponsored both by the Girl Reserves and the Hi-Y. At various times the Girl Reserves are called upon to usher. Every year they are responsible for the Washington Day program. At the beginning of the second semester, the Senior Girl Reserves play “big sister” to the incoming freshman girls. In March the induction for all new members is given to impress upon the new girls the importance and purpose of this club. The last social function of the year is the May Breakfast, a farewell party to the Senior Girl Reserves. The sponsor of this group is Miss Hazel Butler.

JUNIOR GIRL RESERVES

The Junior Girl Reserves have chosen “The Ideal Girl” for their theme. They also usher and assist in the various Girl Reserves’ social functions. The juniors, for the most part, sponsor the May Breakfast at the end of the year. They have control of filling and distributing the Christmas baskets. Many of their programs during the year consist of amusing plays. Their sponsor is Miss Ruth Andres.

“Cultivate Friendship” is the outstanding objective for the freshman—sophomore group. These girls furnish current magazines to shut-ins, and at Christmas time they help fill baskets. They are the largest of the three divisions, numbering sixty-five members. Most of their programs are made up of talent within their group. They are sponsored by Miss Olie Welty and Miss Irene McCoy.

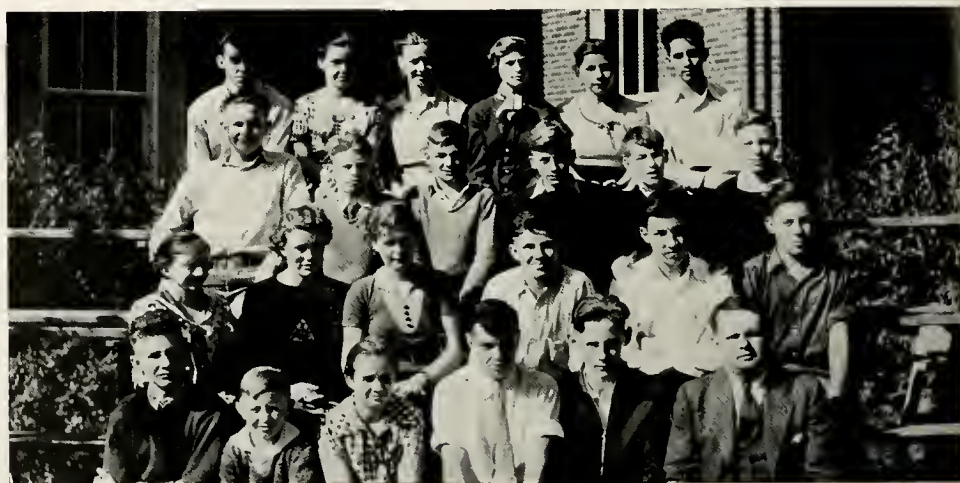

STAMP CLUB

To create interest in collecting stamps among pupils, the Senior Stamp Club sponsored the organization of a high school group in '33. To promote co-operation between the junior and senior organizations, they join in social activities. A plaque was presented to the junior club by Mr. L. L. Howard. Officers are Richard Lamprecht, president; Robert Sanz, vice-president; Donald Leckie, secretary; Polly Wheeler, treasurer; sponsor—Mr. Reid.

FOOTLIGHT MASQUERADERS

The Footlight Masqueraders, a club composed of twenty-two members of the dramatics class, is sponsored by Mr. Conkling. The officers were Allen White, president; Rosalee Totten, vice-president; and Gilbert Johnson, secretary. The major project was the senior play, "Golden Days". The club gave short plays in the gymnasium before the student body. Those presented were "Dust of the Roads", "A Sign Unto You", "Twelve Pound Look", and "Dear Departed". The play "Two Crooks and a Lady" was presented in the gymnasium before the parents at night school. Another subject of interest to the club each year is the construction of miniature stages by each member.

This group does special work in the art of "make-up". They show their ability in the making up of characters for many school functions, including the high school operetta, the Christmas pageant, and the Junior High School operetta.

SCIEMUS CLUB

As a member of the Indiana Junior Academy of Science, the Sciemus Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Pauley, has as its aim the creation of an interest in science. The bi-weekly meetings bring to the forty-nine members well-known speakers and an opportunity to see unusual experiments. The chief social activity is a spring breakfast. Officers are: Myron Basinger, president; Carl Wood, vice-president; Charles Doud, secretary.

DOUBLE-QUARTET

This year our school boasts the fifth anniversary of one of our most important musical organizations, the Double-Quartet. The members are chosen from the glee clubs, after many try outs. Six of the present members have held their positions for two years. They practice regularly each Wednesday morning with their instructor, Mrs. Myers, and accompanist, Jacqueline Sievers.

Their popularity is proved by their numerous public appearances. Among these are at the South Bend Teachers' Convention, P. T. A. programs, Women's Club programs, and commencement exercise.

BAND

Our school band directed by Mr. August Bucci has established an enviable record as an outstanding band in the state by placing in district and state contests. Individual and group recognition is given to members of this organization. It appears at all athletic games and in public concerts; its principal public appearance being the annual Fall Concert given in the high school gymnasium.

The Band Mothers' Club helps to sponsor this organization.

Officers of the band are Merideth Hinkle, president; Christine Lindall, vice-president; Mona Jane Wilson, secretary; Bernice Schneider, treasurer; Jeanette French, librarian; Yeara Musselman, drum major; Harry LaForce, property master.

ORCHESTRA

The V. H. S. orchestra, an organization of twenty-five, practices once a week in Room 205. It appeared last fall in a joint concert with the band and glee clubs, played for the Christmas Pageant, and all senior activities.

Standing: Mr. Conkling—sponsor; Rosalie Falls, Gilbert Johnson, Berniece Sheets, Gilbert Butler, Lillian-ruth Ferrell, Esther Schmidt, Maurice Dittman, Thelma Sherrick.

SENIOR PLAY

Peals of laughter arise, yet tears as Mary Ann Simmonds comes to tea in her "Sunday-go-to-meetin'" dress. Comedy results from Betsey Scroggin's passion for the hired man, and Esther Schmidt's desire for creating new hats and gossip.

Pathos—fun—love—life—laughter were intermingled in the largest project of this class—the senior play called "Golden Days" given March 22.

All seniors entered enthusiastically into a horse racing ticket contest and canvassed the entire city. Attractive varied colored posters were placed in the schools and about the city. Mr. Conkling, English and dramatics instructor, directed the play.

A profit of $88.65 was realized and applied upon Valenian expenses.

OPERETTA

Live Pirates! Cruel pirates! Pirates who roamed the musical sea were portrayed this year through the "Pirates of Penzance", a Gilbert and Sullivan production.

The greatest project of the combined glee clubs is the operetta. The "Pirates of Penzance", given six years ago, was again staged because of numerous requests.

The novel costuming and staging added greatly to the effectiveness of the musical success. Mrs. Mary Myers, sponsor of both glee clubs, directed the play.

The profit from this project is always given to the music department.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

Gaily decorated trees! Christmas baskets! Brightly lighted gymnasium! The Christmas Pageant of 1934!

Grade schools entered into the annual festival by portraying Christmas in other lands. Characteristic dances and customs of Holland, Mexico, France, Germany and England were presented. Each school showed customs of different countries. Banta School depicted Christmas as in Mexico, Columbia as in Germany, Gardner as in France, Central as in Holland, Junior High as in Merrie England.

The birth of Christ was given in pantomime by the Footlight Masqueraders and the English V classes. Those taking an important part in the Nativity scene were Thelma Sherrick, Mary; Charles Stephens, Joseph; Allen White, Paul Riddle, Gilbert Butler, Three Wise Men; Robert Pierce, Robert Sanz, Merideth Hinkle, attendants; Joseph Dye, Gilbert Johnson, Rolland Humphrey, shepherds.

Christmas carols were sung by the grade children and by a picked group from the glee clubs.

Many Christmas baskets were filled for the unfortunate.

THE HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM

The Valparaiso High School gymnasium, erected in 1927 at a cost of $100,000, is rated one of the finest gyms in the state. It was dedicated to, and named Boucher gymnasium in honor of the late Chauncey Watson Boucher.

The building has a seating capacity of nearly 3000 and possesses a regulation size basketball court, with the dimensions seventy-seven by fifty feet.

The gym has both boys' and girls' locker rooms and excellent gymnastic equipment.

Under the south tier of seats is the manual arts department—every corner of the building being properly used.

The building can also be easily transformed into an auditorium for many occasions. At the west end is a well built stage, on which many performances take place yearly.

Such festivities as the Christmas Pageant and May Festival are always associated with this building. The juniors and seniors think of it, too, in connection with the most outstanding social event of the year—the Junior-Senior Prom.

This building is in use practically every hour in the school day and many an evening finds it a scene of school activity. Here every Saturday during the school year the children of the grades enjoy supervised play.

FOOTBALL

Despite the extreme heat, about two weeks before school, thirty-five grid aspirants answered the call of coach Ralph Powell.

Nine varsity men returned to the squad this season: Marvin Carlson, Harold Kraft, Robert Koble, Howard Brown, George Miller, Courtney Holt, Arthur Smith, Howard Longshore, and William Forney. The guard positions needed to be filled. Jack Fulton and Charles Hoover completed the strong lineup.

After days of getting in shape, lugging the pigskin, blocking, tackling, passing, and transforming loose summer fat to hard muscle, the Viking gridders broke open their eight game schedule on September 22, when they trounced Rensselaer 18-0.

With three victories in the bag, Rensselaer, Crown Point, and Plymouth, the Powellmen dropped their first homecoming tilt to the Slicers of LaPorte 33-19. Following this surprise, the Green and White encountered a tough foe in Jeff of Lafayette, losing 36-0.

These two successive set-backs enraged the Vikings, so when the Hobart Brickies came to Brown Field the following week, the V. H. S. pigskinners defeated the Clay City ball-toters 21-7. Hammond Tech, proved to be the Vikings' next enemy. Both teams played bang-up ball, but the Tigers held the Powellmen to a 7-7 deadlock.

The end of the gridiron season approached with Lowell the last on the list. Running up against a stubborn line, the Vikings were defeated 18-13.

The Valpo High boys who will never don another V. H. S. football suit are Carlson and Miller, ends; Kraft, Brown, and Ridgway, tackles; Fulton and Hoover, guards; Koble, center; Longshore, Forney, and Dye, backfield men.

Underclassmen who saw service in some of the frays are: Witner, Pierce, Shook, Shaw, Wells, Swelstead, Kline, McCann, Jankowski, Masterson, and Thorgren.

VARSDTY BASKETBALL

After the football season had passed, basketball, king of Indiana's sports, entered V. H. S. gymnasium. Coach R. Powell had fine material this year; Robert Koble, William Forney, Howard Longshore, George Miller, Courtney Holt, and Arthur Smith returned from last year's first team.

About sixty boys responded to Coach's first whistle for basketball players. After several of the usual heart breaking cuts, and days of practice, we found George Miller and William Forney at forwards, Robert Koble at the pivot post, and Wallace Blake and Courtney Holt pairing up as fast breaking guards, for a clicking first five. The understudies, for the present time, were Howard Longshore, John Shaw, Brice McCann, Adolph Jankowski, and Arthur Smith.

November 23 found the Vikings ready to plunge into the first game of the schedule, a non-conference tilt with North Judson, who took a 23-19 defeat. LaPorte and Wheeler then came along; both were drubbed by the Vikings' fast working quint. The three game winning streak was halted when the Green and White travelled to Hammond to indulge in their first conference fray. The Wildcats clawed the Powellmen for a 36-31 win. To more than even things up, the Vikings, in the next two games with Roosevelt of E. C. and Whiting, handed each of their opponents a good whipping. General Rollins and crew invaded the Valpo gymnasium; they caught Robert Koble sick and unable to play—consequently a 25-21 loss for V. H. S. The Vikings then journeyed to Elkhart to put a 43-30 victory in the bag.

Next on the schedule proved to be the Froebel Blue Devils; they emerged victorious 27-21. The Valpo lads then pulled themselves together and beat Emerson, (at the time, league leaders) Horace Mann, and Hammond for three consecutive wins. The next engagement was with the Ruff Riders of Roosevelt. The Vikings met a newly inspired team and took a 24-17

JOHN SHAW—junior, center, 5 points.

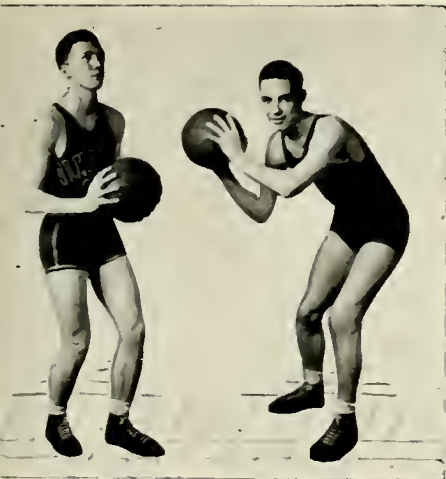

WILLIAM FORNEY—senior, guard, 156 points.

COURTNEY HOLT—junior, guard, 66 points.

BRICE MCCANN—junior, forward, 3 points.

ARTHUR SMITH—junior, guard, 7 points.

ROBERT KOBLE—senior, center, 224 points.

defeat. The Oilers were the next stone in the Vikings' path. Whiting, which proved to be a pebble, was easily tossed aside, suffering a 34-19 trouncing. Along came Washington E. C. and "hit" the Vikings for a 36-28 win—this game was later forfeited to Valpo because of an ineligibility on the Senator's team. Froebel whipped the Powellmen again in a thrilling 22-21 battle. The Norsemen then came to Boucher gymnasium to avenge that former blow by the Vikings, but to no avail. The Valpo High boys repeated their former performance for another 28-26 triumph. The following night, the Powellmen were Michigan City's guests, and the Imps were adjudged victors, 23-22. The Vikings ended the list with wins over Horace Mann and Winamac.

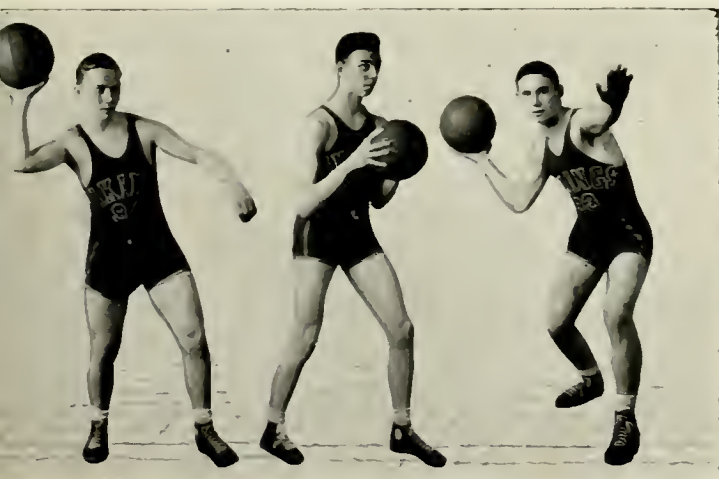

The schedule was completed; the Vikings won 13 and lost 6 for a successful season.

TOURNAMENTS

Following the Winamac game, Mentor Powell piloted the Vikings through a week of steady practice in readiness for the sectional. This year the predictions were that no one team predominated over the other schools; the forecasts were correct; however the more experienced, and better coached Vikings went through the tourney to be crowned champs. Valpo in the final game with Chesterton won by a score of 32-25.

After showing supremacy in the sectional tourney, the Vikings put in a week of intensive practice for the regional. The locals had to meet Michigan City at LaPorte and were defeated 27-18.

V. H. S. basketball for 1934-1935 was at an end. The boys who so faithfully executed their part in putting Valparaiso High School basketball on a high plane, and who played their last high school cage ball are: George Miller, Howard Longshore, Robert Koble, and William Forney.

JUNIOR VIKINGS

The Junior Vikings, although not having a very successful season, exhibited to Valpo fans that they will furnish a wealth of material for coming V. H. S. teams. All the members of the team have at least one or two years of competition remaining. Several freshmen, who saw service during the schedule, appear to be likely prospects for first ten material during the 1935-36 season. The five who played most of the season and will make a determined fight for the first five berths are Campbell Kane, lanky center; Ketchell Crisp and Edgar Witner, rangy forwards; Carroll Sheets and Eugene Shook, fast breaking guards, who have an eagle eye from any position on the court. Some of the young scrappy aspirants who, due to lack of experience, will probably see reserve service again next year are: Robert Kitchen, William Wells, Chester Phillips, Elroy St. Clair, Roland Sheets, Joseph Curtis, Kenneth Rhoda, Ralph Chester, Ernest Thorgren, Campbell Holt, William Windle, and Leonard Kraft.

The leading scorers for the second team were Carroll Sheets with 114 points; Edgar Witner, 69; and Campbell Kane, 61.

BASEBALL 1934

The '34 baseball season was one of the best for V. H. S. in many years. The Vikings played nine games, winning six and losing three for a 667 percentage. Washington and Hebron were the only teams to defeat the Powellmen; the Senators taking a double bill from the Vikings.

Five first team boys from the '33 squad returned to the diamond. They were Gilbert Johnson, Ralph Suesse, William Forney, Robert Koble, and Courtney Holt.

The vacant positions were ably filled by Howard Longshore playing the hot corner position; George Miller, the initial sack; Ralph Baker, the right garden; and Charles Hoover, wearing the war togs.

The substitutes who played in several games were George Butterfield, shortstop; John Shaw, shortstop; Eugene Pinkerton, catcher; Herbert Claudon, third base; George Kriston, left field.

TUMBLING 1935

For the past five years the high school tumblers have tried to form a tumbling team that would well represent their school in any meets or exhibitions in which they might participate. Finally through the efforts of Mr. J. B. Brown, coach, and the boys' enthusiastic attitude toward this minor sport, they have moulded a fine team, one of the best in the state.

This year the team had many requests to give exhibitions but were unable to answer all the requests due to a limited schedule and other scholastic functions.

Some of the performances made this season were at the Knights of Columbus, American Legion, Wanatah, Washington, E. C., LaPorte, Hebron, and between the halves of the Emerson-Valpo High basketball game, and University-Evansville game.

In an exhibition held at LaPorte March 28, the V. H. S. team easily carried off the tumbling honors against such schools as Notre Dame and Purdue.

This was one of the most successful golf seasons the team has ever had. Of the seven matches played only one was lost, and this to Riley of South Bend in the N. I. H. S. C. championship playoff. On May 19 the team placed fourth in a field of 40 schools in a state tourney held at Indianapolis.

NOONDAY IN SEPTEMBER

NOONDAY LEAGUE

Playing many close, rough, and interesting games, the noonday league basketball provides the winter lunch hour's entertainment.

Again under the able direction of Coach Powell and eight picked captains, nearly seventy high school boys took part in the league.

The end of the first round found Harrison Baker's team heading the list with an .857 standing.

Wallace Wilson's group won the last round and there resulted a four way tie for second position. Then in the championship game, Baker trounced Wilson 20-6.

Following this game a heated tourney was played. James Daly and Charles Beach won their first two games, and met in the finals. Beach led at the half 9 to 7 but Daly eked out a 16 to 15 victory in the final minutes of play. In the last basketball game of the year, Daly beat the high school second team, which shows that they were really a strong quint.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

In the Valparaiso High School the Girls' Athletic Association, under the sponsorship of Miss Schudel, is five years old. It was created to advance girls' athletics, improve the girls' health, offer recreation for the girls, and to bring the girls into closer contact. The fact that there are now 140 members proves that the organization has accomplished its purpose.

G. A. A. is based upon a point system. Points are given for participating in the various activities, being on winning teams, being captains, chairmen, or officers. These points are recorded and at the end of the year awards are given as follows: numerals for 250 points, monograms for 600 points, sweaters for 1500 points, and chevrons for additional 500 points.

The officers of the G. A. A. are Margaret Crisman, president; Lois Wharton, vice-president; Dorothy Goddard, secretary; and Helen Rowland, treasurer. These officers are assisted by the chairmen of each sport.

G. A. A. CUP

Each year a cup is given to the girl who is the outstanding athlete for the year. The girl's name is placed upon the cup and it is left on exhibition in the high school.

For the year 1933-34, the honor was bestowed upon Mildred Shideler. She was chosen for her skill, sportsmanship, leadership, and popularity with the girls.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

The G. A. A. sponsors many social activities during the year.

The soccer roast starts the year's athletic social whirl and is held at the close of the soccer season. At the close of the basketball season comes the club's only formal affair, the basketball banquet. The girls close the school year with their beach party which is held during the last week of school at Johnson's Beach.

Another major event of G. A. A. is the May Festival for which the most popular and attractive high school girl is voted Queen. This Festival is an annual affair and is accepted most favorably by the public.

NOONDAY LEAGUE

The noonday league, an innovation into G. A. A., was sponsored for the benefit of those girls unable to go home at noon and for those unable to participate in active sports.

The noonday sports are numerous and include shuffleboard, badminton, ping-pong, horseshoe, and tetherball. While these sports are mostly individual and require little action, they are a source of great entertainment for the girls.

Those who were outstanding and winners were the Bastel twins in horseshoe, Laura Mae Conley and Christine Lindall in badminton after school; Allene Johnson and Cora Bastel in badminton at noon; Pauline Biggs in ping-pong.

These sports are carried on every noon during the school year. Tournaments are played off and the girls receive G. A. A. points for being winners.

SOCCKER

The soccer season started September 17 with ninety girls enrolled. Teams were chosen at once by drawing names from a hat and the first tournament got under way.

Six teams played in this tournament and a new system of playing was introduced, first the six teams played each other, then the losers played games with losers and winners played winners, the tournament being finished by the winner of the winners meeting the winner of the losers. Captain Margaret Crisman's team showed superior skill and easily won this first tournament.

The class tournament proved more interesting and the teams were better matched. The best players, picked by Chairman Bettylou Nichols and Miss Helen Schudel, represented their classes. The juniors met and easily defeated the sophomores in the first game, but the seniors had to fight hard to defeat the determined young freshmen. The climax came when the juniors met the seniors in the final game. It was a close game, but finally the seniors came through victorious.

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball proved especially popular this year with 112 girls reporting to chairman Margaret Tofte. Eleven teams were chosen and play started at once, the first games being played on November 21.

In this first tournament, every team met every other team and the team credited with the most victories became the winner. The race was very close. The last week of the tournament Captain Mona Jane Wilson led her team, number VIII, to victory with Team III running a close second. Although the girls had no special time to practice, their games revealed unusual skill.

The girls outstanding for their skill in serving and volleying were gathered for class teams, and the class tournament was on. The freshmen struggled hard against the juniors, but had to accept a defeat of 46-29. Likewise the sophomores were downed by the seniors. In the last game the rival upper classmen met, but, once again, the mighty seniors were victorious when they defeated the juniors 54-41.

BASKETBALL

Basketball season, with its usual excitement and fun, got under way on January 9. Chairman Ann Maulsby started the first tournament at once.

The teams of the first tournament were divided into two groups, A and B, the A's being the more experienced players. Each group played off a tournament. These games afforded much excitement and amusement and finally A Team 1, with Captain Doris Lutz, and B Team 2, with Captain Helen Bartz, came out winners.

The second tournament was a Gang Tournament, something new for G. A. A. The girls organized themselves into gangs and games were played off. The winner of this tournament was the "Fraternity" gang with Bettylou Nichols, captain.

The final and most important was the Class Tournament. Again the best players were chosen to represent their classes and play began as the juniors met the seniors and the sophomores met the freshmen. The upper classmen came off winners and met in the final game. The seniors were again victorious under Captain Mona Jane Wilson's leadership.
